LETTER HUNT through Kahler

Answer: Kahler Eiche (= The oak tree from Kahler)

3,5 km

Letter hunt and graffiti

On the circular trail through Kahler, you'll get to know a mysterious giant! Who is this giant and what does he have to say about Garnich's past? Find out on this 3.5 km circular walk.

When you visit Kahler (Koler in Luxembourgish), you're bound to be amazed by its many colorful houses. Using the motto Make Koler Koler, Alain Welter, a young street artist, has transformed the outside walls of the village houses into a huge work of art. Next to a farm and stables, you'll also find the racing snail!

Elsy Jacobs
 Elsy Jacobs was a Luxembourg cyclist. In 1958, she won the first women's world cycling championship. Elsy was born in Garnich in 1933. Her older brothers were allowed to ride bikes, but she wasn't. She was "just" a girl. So she bought her first bicycle herself with her pocket money and began her career as a cyclist. For some time now, there has been an annual women's cycling race, the Elsy Jacobs Festival.
